

Summer Enrichment Camps—June 2008

U. S. Jones Schedule for Students—Grades K-5

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
1 Music Camp Voice Lessons, & Computer $30.00	2 Voice Lessons by Arletha Perry, DHS Choir Director with over 20 years experi- ence.	3 Voice lessons and some choir assemble Drums, Computer and Keyboarding	4 Voice, recordings, and other music as- semble.	5 Learn How to re- cord a musical ar- rangement. You will get a CD of your recordings.	6 10:30 A. M.—Musical Recital Parents and friends invited	7
8 Sports Camp— Basketball, Base- ball, Softball, Cup Stacking, and PS3	9 Sports Camp At U. S. Jones Gym from 8-11:45 A. M. June 9-13. Ages K-6 Grade	10 Cup Stacking and PS3 Games will be played during part of the morning activi- ties.	11 Practice for all ages girls and boys. The differ- ent Sports Contests will be announced in advance of the tournament on the 13th.	12 Competition contests in cup stacking and PS3 Games will be practiced to prepare for finals on Friday.	13 Sports Tournament and contests for all ages. Tournament and Awards 10:30 AM-U. S. Jones Gym	14
15 Missoula Children's Theatre at DHS	16 Auditions at 9:00 A. M. at DHS Auditor- ium for Hansel and Gretel. Ages K-10th Grade	17 After the audi- tions, schedules will be given out for times of rehearsals. All rehearsals at DHS	18 Practice for Hansel and Gretel 	19 Rehearsals for final performances on Friday Pizza Party (TBA)	20 Hansel and Gretel Matinee -2:30 P. M. Night Performance at 6:00 P. M. (Cost: $3.00)	21
22 Field Trips, Pho- tography and E-mail. Grades K-5- U. S. Jones and Westside $30.00	23 Computer, Pho- tography and E-mail 	24 Visit Pizza Hut and Make a Pizza for Lunch 	25 Water Safety and Boat Trip with Corp. of Engineers 	26 Tour of Univ. of West AL, Eat and Tour a Bakery, Livingston, AL	27 Photography, E-mail to Newspaper and End of Summer Sc. Party 	28 Time for Vacation
29 	30	FREE LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED EACH DAY IF THE PARENTS RE- QUEST. STUDENTS ARE NOT REQUIRED TO EAT THE FREE LUNCH

Students can participate in any camp at U. S. Jones or Westside. You can attend a camp at a school you do not attend.

U. S. Jones Summer Enrichment Camp Newsletter

June 2-27, 2008 (8:00 A. M.—11:50 A. M.)

Hansel and Gretel

Hansel and Gretel, a play from Missoula Children's Musical Drama, will be at Demopolis High School during the week of June 15-20. It is for students in grades 1-8. Auditions will be June 15th at 9:00 A. M. at the DHS Auditorium. 50 Students are needed for the parts. All students from Marengo County are allowed to participate, but only 50 will receive parts. Schedules for rehearsals will be given out at the auditions. Hansel and Gretel will give two final performances on Friday, June 20. Matinee—3:00, Evening Performance—6:00. No charge for the camp. The Alabama Arts Council provided a grant for Missoula Children's Theatre. Admission for the matinee and night performances

ART CAMP

PAINTING, DRAWING, CRAFTS, MAKING FRAMES AND MUCH MORE. Grades K-5

ART EXHIBIT AT 11:00 A. M. AT WESTSIDE—PARENTS AND FRIENDS ARE INVITED. $50.00 (Limited to 50)

APPLICATION ATTACHED: Application and deposit must be returned as soon as possible. Deposit is $30.00 and will apply to the first camp the child attends. Please note that deposits of $30.00 are not refundable if a child decides not to attend camp. Open to all students at Westside and U. S. Jones.

SIDEWALK SCIENCE

June 16-20 at U. S. Jones

$30.00

Flying Kites, Dropping Eggs, Making Ice Cream, Making Solar Energy, Making and Baking Pizza, and many other fun science experiments.

Field Trips, Photography and E-mail

Application for summer camp attached to this calendar and newsletter.

Field Trips, Photography and E-mail

Students will experience field trips to Demopolis Animal Shelter, Univ. of West Alabama, and Livingston Bakery. They will go on a boat trip with the Corp. of Engineers on the Tom Bigbee River, make a pizza at the Demopolis Pizza Hut, and have other fun experiences. Students will learn about 4-H and their fun contests during the summer. They will make pictures and make a summer scrapbook.

June 23-27, $30.00 for one week

Girls Diva Day Camp is for grades K-5. (June 2-6) Glamour, Make-up, Nails, Fashion, Glitter, Photo Shots and More. Girls will make jewelry and decorate flip flop sandals. Girls will learn cheerleading cheers and enjoy the fun! $30.00